Nrityanjali Information

Sri Lakshmi Temple invites dance teachers/students and performers to participate in an offering of Nrityanjali to Lord Nataraja as part of the Maha Shivarathri Celebrations at Sri Lakshmi Temple, Ashland, MA on Sunday, March 16, 2014, starting at 9 AM.

- We invite devotional dances from any Classical or Folk style with songs based in any language
- Each dance should be for a maximum duration of 10 minutes.
- All participants are requested to fill the attached Excel spreadsheet and email it to nrityanjali2014@gmail.com
- If you are learning from a local teacher, please send your item through your teacher
- We request teachers to send the complete list of participants from their school by email by March 9th, along with the preferred time slot.
- While we will try to accommodate all requests, we will handle requests on a first-come-first-serve basis. Requests sent on or before Mar 9th will be put into the program list. After that all items will be added to the end on a first-cum-first serve basis.
- A donation of $10.00 per item per participant is requested. Teachers are requested to collect the money from their students and bring a consolidated check to the temple written out to NEHTI. Students who have no designated teacher will pay (check preferable) at the temple on the day of the performance.

May the blessings of Lord Shiva be always with you and your family.
