Revathi Ramaswamy is an accomplished musician and has given several Veena concerts in USA and India. She learned music from her mother Vainika Gayaka Vidhushi late Smt. Ranganayaki Sundararajan of Mysore.

Revathi has received rave reviews for her soul filling traditional style of music, raga and tana malikas, and has been able to bring out in clear relief the rhythmic aspects in the kritis without in any way sacrificing their melodic content. Over the last several years, Revathi has participated in the Arangetrams in the greater Boston area both as a singer and as a Veena player.

She is a practicing Anesthesiologist and teaches vocal and Veena music in Lexington.
